

The Weekly Trumpet

a publication of
THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH of
SAINT MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS
ANNISTON, ALABAMA

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. It is through encountering God within worship that we are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the glories of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

Though summer is upon us, and with it vacations and weekends away, please make every effort to be present in worship as often as you are able.

Committed to being a compassionate parish family that embraces diversity and values the variety of God's gifts to each—and all—of us, we are strongest when we are together!

The Day of Pentecost, in the British tradition called Whitsunday, is the fiftieth and final day of the Easter season. One of the principal feasts in The Calendar of the Church Year (see page 15 in The Book of Common Prayer), it celebrates the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles and the establishment of the Church through the preaching of the apostles and the baptism of the thousands who on that day believed in the Gospel message. The day emphasizes that the Church is understood as the body of Christ, which is drawn together and given life by the Holy Spirit. It also marks the start of the longest season of the liturgical calendar.

AN INVITATION TO MAKE MUSIC TOGETHER

Have you ever had the idea you might enjoy singing in the choir? If so, your Parish choir is going into our "summer phase," whereby things are a bit more fluid and relaxed, and it would be a great time to give it a try. Parishioners are always welcome, and we'd be happy for you to join over the summer to discover what we do. We rehearse Sunday mornings at 9:00, and sing the Eucharist at 10:30. Please reach out to Mark Hayes at 205-527-7797, in person, or by email at mark.w.hayes@icloud.com.
