The Worship of the Church

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. In worship, we express our theology and shape our identity. It is through encountering God in worship that we are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the glories of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship—worship shaped by actions, patterns, forms, and words, both spoken and sung, through which we gather to praise and encounter God. You are encouraged to participate fully in the weekly worship of the Church.

If you wish to speak with me, schedule a home visit (with or without Holy Communion), or have a pastoral need, please feel free to contact me at (256) 237-4011 or (256) 225-3625 or by email at dhodnett@stmichaelsanniston.org. Peace and love, David+

AN INVITATION TO MAKE MUSIC TOGETHER

Have you ever had the idea you might enjoy singing in the choir? If so, your Parish choir is going into our "summer phase," whereby things are a bit more fluid and relaxed, and it would be a great time to give it a try. Parishioners are always welcome, and we'd be happy for you to join over the summer to discover what we do. We rehearse Sunday mornings at 9:00, and sing the Eucharist at 10:30. Please reach out to Mark Hayes at 205-527-7797, in person, or by email at mark.w.hayes@icloud.com.

BECOME A SPONSOR

It is no secret that our weekly worship is deeply enriched by our CHORAL SCHOLARS, each of whom receives a modest stipend to support their educational pursuits and as an expression of our gratitude to them for faithfully sharing their gifts for the praise and worship of God.

Please help us continue and strengthen this valued ministry with a financial gift or an annual or partial sponsorship.

For more information, speak with Father David, Mark Hayes, or Parish Treasurer Bryan Cuneo.

Sincere thanks to those who already provide generous financial support and, by doing so, increase the joy and richness of our common life and worship.
